    I took the opportunity of asking CASTROP about the UMNOV case and whether he knew if UMNOV was married; he did not. I gave him the various names I found that could be his mother (KALUGIN and GOSIT) and he said he would check it out. I said I would also run traces. CASTROP said that AUGSBURG made such a fine appearance of a distinguished and scholarly man that no one ever believed he could lie. According to CASTROP, this is how he could protect UMNOV. CASTROP is convinced that UMNOV was involved in murder in Smolensk and that AUGSBURG was also guilty of some war crimes. He wants to meet again on the subject and bring HERMANN of ACKERMANN's shop along. HERMANN has been researching the CATIDE files. A meeting has been scheduled for 29 November.

    4. I mentioned to CASTROP that, while we have been providing translations of conversations in Russian to the German language on both of these cases, we have not been translating intercepted letters since the written stuff has for the most part appeared to be inconsequential. I suggested to CASTROP that we leave it up to him whether or not he wishes us to provide translations in specific cases where in CASTROP's judgment the extra effort would appear to be worthwhile.

    5. We passed CLAUSEN the new transcripts providing translations from Polish into German of conversations showing up on two transcripts on Subject which CLAUSEN had returned to me in our most recent meeting. (The transcripts involved are 308644-208663, conversation 6; and 209089-209095, conversation 5.) CLAUSEN then passed me the tape corresponding to intercept 207260-207263 on which CLAUSEN would like conversation 4 (in Polish) translated into German. I passed this tape to Chief/CALLIIAX for processing.
